Gentlemen:

Regarding "United States War Medals" by Bauman L. Belden:

Are copies of the above monograph, written something over ten years ago, still available? Should also appreciate your reference to other literature on this subject within your knowledge. Does the Society issue a subscribable periodical? Thanking you for your advices

Yours very truly,

Mr. Charles P. Hey,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Responding to your note of the 17th, we can furnish copies of Belden's United States War Medals for $2.00. I am enclosing a list of our monographs, of which you will note there are several dealing with decorations.

If you are interested in this subject, I would suggest your becoming an Associate member. The dues are only $5.00 annually, and I am enclosing an application card in the event that you consider this suggestion.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Mr. Sydney P. Noe, Secretary,
American Numismatic Society,
Broadway, at 156th Street,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

Acknowledging your letter of the 21st, wish to thank you for the information contained therein. Please send me a copy of Alden's "United States War Medals", for which I am remitting $2.00 herewith.

With regard to membership in your society, would say that I am collecting military medals in a small way, concentrating at present on the comparatively limited United States group. Others of course, by the way, interest me (especially the British). I make little effort in the direction of coins. So that I fall far short of qualifying as a numismatist.

Thank you, however, for your invitation to submit my name for election to membership. I shall retain the application card and at some future time may avail myself of the privilege you extend.

Very truly yours,

Chas. P. Hey

Dear Sir:

Under separate cover, I am sending you the last copy we have of Belden's 'United States War Medals'. This copy is somewhat 'shopworn', and if you do not care to retain it, please return it to us and we will return your remittance of $2.00.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Mr. Sidney P. Noe, Secretary,
American Numismatic Society,

Dear Sir:

Received today your last copy of Belden's "United States War Medals" and, having it, I cannot feel disappointed by its somewhat shaken condition when I realize how nearly I may have failed to acquire it at all. It has a completeness (up to and including 1916) which I have not found in other works.

✓ Perhaps you can send me a fresh copy of Harrold E. Gillingham's "French Orders and Decorations" (monograph #11) for which I am remitting herewith $2.00.

Very truly yours,

Chas. P. Hey

Mr. Charles P. Hoy,

Dear Sir:

Your faculty for selecting our publications which are almost entirely out of print is extraordinary. We have, however, sent you one of the three remaining copies of Mr. Gillingham's 'French Orders and Decorations', and thank you for your cheque to cover.

If you are interested in decorations, you might care to consider becoming an Associate member of our Society. By so doing you would receive our future publications. I enclose a list of past publications for your information. The annual dues are but $5.00. Whether or not you accept this invitation, I hope you may find it convenient to visit our Museum some day, and if you will make yourself known either to Mr. Wood or to myself we shall endeavor to put at your disposal more than is shown to the ordinary visitor.

Dear Sir:

When I am again in New York, (probably some Saturday in the near future), I want to view your collection of United States and British medals and decorations very thoroughly and leisurely than I was able to last spring. At that time, you may recall, the books were closed to the public on account, I believe, of some rearrangement of display. Shall I find the books open any Saturday afternoon now?

During the past year my collection of British war medals has grown apace. I have found the several dealers in London ever able and willing to supply any item desired in that field. On the other hand the United States service medals seem very unavailable to collectors, by comparison. That has been my experience, at least; and I have diligently pursued my quest of them here. No doubt there is a more ready source of supply on these in New York. Can you give me the names of dealers there or elsewhere who make some effort to acquire our service medals and decorations, for as, I realize, they are, when one considers Great Britain's camp? I shall be glad to know also of live Canadian dealers.

Appreciating such information as you can offer me,

Very truly yours,

Chas. P. Hey

Mr. Charles P. Hey

Dear Mr. Hey:

Responding to your letter of October 16th, I regret to say that our building is not yet in order. It is possible that it will be so by the end of November, at least that is what we are promised. May I write to you again as soon as we can have you see the collection of decorations which should be available before some of the other objects?

When you were here I think I mentioned the name of Mr. Gillingham, the Treasurer of our Society, whose Philadelphia address is 432 West Price Street, Germantown. He too is an enthusiastic collector of medals, and he will be so much better able to answer your queries than I am, that I venture to suggest your calling him by telephone and endeavouring to arrange an appointment with him.

There are very few dealers in New York, and I do not know of any Canadian collectors.

Regretting that we are under the necessity of asking you to postpone giving us the pleasure of welcoming you here, I am,

Very cordially yours,

Secretary.

3. Mr. Gillingham's Numismatic Society monograph No. 31: "Spanish Orders of Chivalry and Decorations of Honour".

With the best wishes of the season,
